

Please do not change Indiana's no call law to allow Banks to call consumers who have previously had accounts with them. This would cause consumers such as myself to be "harrassed" with calls we do not want and have not solicited. Thank you